

A TRIBUTE TO TWO

Examples among many of courage and determination.

Pictured here are two of the 11 disabled staff employed by AQUAID LIFELINE. Some travel 5 kilometres to work, helped by relatives, whose devotion and care is a continuous challenge. John says, "I have found these folk to be conscientious and hardworking, and the great thing is that the families who have cherished and supported them for many years now benefit from a share in their salaries. This, of course gives them a new status and dignity, and a deserved and genuine self esteem. Sadly, Delichina, pictured left, passed away in September of this year at Mlambe Hospital. She is missed by children and staff alike. We are proud to have known her."

ON THE AGENDA

Problem: 5 villages in the Namalitha area with no school.

Response: AQUAID LIFELINE is building a school to accommodate 500 children along with playground, sports facilities, and staff houses. Bricks all handmade by local villagers.

Problem: The nearest clinic to Mwalawoyera is 15km away. Result? With no ambulances or transport, sick children and adults frequently die on the long journey.

Response: AQUAID LIFELINE is building a new health centre at Mwalawoyera to government specifications.

Problem: Increasing numbers of children orphaned daily, and left facing a life blighted by poverty and lack of opportunity.

Response: AQUAID LIFELINE seeks to be a small part of the solution. We are building two more Orphan Daycare Centres, one at Mariya, and the other in Mangochi.

Grateful thanks to all our customers for continued loyal support.
